I gave it a 3 because at least they're donating $ from the film to help orphanages (one in particular was there that night at the Fox)....and after the movie, what did all of these influential preachers and their family members do? Did they stop and befriend these obviously under-dressed orphans after the movie? While the kids were coming down the stairs in jeans and the best clothes they could put together.....did I see any of the obviously well and overdressed attendees actually try and mingle or minister to them.....on the contrary, the mass audience of "Christians" flocked to the open bars inside the fox to get a cocktail, while the orphans and their friends/family/acquaintances awkwardly, and hurriedly left. As for the movie, what I got from it was a guy who was in severe pain and couldn't be helped by modern medicine....this movie shows that you can get comfort from your church community...!F you belong to one. For those of us that don't, I guess we are on our own or have to rely on our own faith.nicoléhufnagelDec 4, 2015See detailed box office info on IMDbProSuggest an edit or add missing contentBy what name was 90 Minutes in Heaven (2015) officially released in India in English?AnswerYou have no recently viewed pages Fer Gregory/Shutterstock Ah, the 90's.
